Mr. Creasser stated that we had some parcels that are so small and would like to be able to sell some of the properties for less than $400.00. Commissioners Bowes made a motion to give authority to Mr. Creasser and Damian Cornacchione to offer to the abutting homeowner for no fee if the property less than 10 feet or less. Second by Commissioner Breaux.

New Hope Community Development Center

Rev. Jeanne Huiett gave an overview of what New Hope's plan for the neighborhoods they would like to develop. The Financial plan was introduced by Mr. Russ Smith. Mr. Leland Wall the current housing manager helps with the paperwork for the client. Rev. Huiett introduced the other members associated with this project.

Children's Guardian Home

Commissioner Bowes was asked by the Children's Guardian Home Foundation of which he is on the board, to look into the Foundations funds which was designed to specifically to help the children. The City Council created a fund. The Foundation would like to know where the money goes now. There may be $75-125,000 in the fund. The Foundation would like the funds transferred to them since it is directly to be use for children. The Foundation is allowed to do with the funds, as they would like. The funds would have to be used for another charitable organization or for the home itself. Motion by Commissioner Breaux to encourage the City Council to transfer the fund to the Foundation to help children in need. Second by Commissioner Breaux. Commissioner Bowes will draft the letter for the City Council.
